'Things will be different' Rhoads vows

Huron Township Supervisor Douglas C. Rhoads, missing since Feb. 9., has returned.

The 29-year-old supervisor arrived at Detroit Metropolitan Airport at 10 p.m. Monday from Daytona Beach, Fla.

Rhoads, object of a statewide police search and whose disappearance caused the filing of a removal petition at Gov. William G. Milliken's office in Lansing, announced on his arrival that he has returned with "renewed strength and spirit" and aims to straighten out matters and take control of his office, a control he stated he never had.

Rhoads, who campaigned as a conservative Republican last fall, won the supervisor's post by a wide margin.

The young supervisor said that he left New Boston and flew to Miami without notifying anyone, not even members of his family. Since then, he has visited various Florida cities.

In commenting on his disappearance, Rhoads said, "I wanted time to stop and contemplate and think about the job and the things that were going on. I was not happy with matters, lack of board cooperation and the fact that some board members, in my mind, had conflicts of interest. They were more interested in these than in the public interest."

Contending that his disappearance was also sort of a vacation, Rhoads added, "I lost control of the supervisor's office. I forgot that I was the supervisor. I wanted time to rest and think. Now things will be different. I will take control and do the things that I originally set out to do." Rhoads thanked his many friends for their concern and prayers and asked them for continued support.

Asked about a letter of resignation.

submitted to the township board by his father, Ecorse Municipal Judge Carl L. Rhoads, the supervisor stated that he did not know of it and "What's more, it has no effect."

When asked about the removal petition filed by the township board with the governor's office, Rhoads said, "The governor isn't going to do anything about it."

Moore will ask removal delay

By Henry Cantin

A request to defer removal proceedings by Governor William G. Milliken against just returned Huron Township Supervisor Douglas C. Rhoads, 29, pending completion of an official investigation by the governor's office will be made this week George W. Moore, township clerk and currently acting supervisor, reported Monday.

A petition calling for the ouster of Rhoads, who had been missing since Feb. 9, was filed last week by Moore with Lt. Gov. James H. Brickley in the absence of Kenneth P. Frankland, legal aid to Gov. Milliken.

The petition charged that Rhoads has been "willfully negligent of his duties as an elected officer in that since the 8th day of February, 1971, he has not in any manner performed the duties to which he was elected."

The township board in a roll call vote unanimously approved the petition, but when presented to the governor's aids only four signed it. They were Moore, Harvey Carey, Raymond Kreyger and Donald Radabaugh.

Monday, Moore stated that he will present at tonight's board meeting a motion to request the governor to lay aside the petition on behalf of the board members until a determination by the governor's office as to the missing supervisor's whereabouts is made. There is no word yet on what Moore will do now that Rhoads has returned.

The two board members who did not sign the petition were Edward Helwig, treasurer and Roy Baker, trustee, both Republicans, according to Moore.

Moore had stated that if the governor's office fails to locate Rhoads by the next board session scheduled for March 24, then the board would have asked the governor to take necessary legal steps to remove Rhoads.

Following the receipt of the removal petition, Gov. Milliken said, "If there is a sense of urgency about it, and the government can't operate efficiently, I will give it top priority. I must now determine what my constitutional duties are in the matter."

In the removal of public and elected officials by the governor, it was reported that a hearing officer, usually a probate judge is appointed to hear the charges or reasons behind the ouster petition. It is expected that the governor may make such an appointment before arriving at a final decision.

A communication of resignation of Rhoads submitted by his father was not accepted by the township board.

Judge Rhoads, in submitting the letter of resignation, stated that it was prompted by reasons of health. The letter failed to indicate that the judge had power of attorney from his son.

Rhoads, father of two children, is not charged with any wrong doing. His "unexplained" disappearance and ignited removal proceedings by the township board.

If the governor should remove Rhoads, the township board will have 45 days to appoint a successor. Upon failure to do so, an election would be scheduled upon the approval of the governor.

Moore stated that the township is responsible to the people and the action taken by the board with the governor's office is a performance of this responsibility.

A group consisting of seven concerned Huron Township women drove to Lansing last Thursday in connection with the supervisor's disappearance.

They made a request that Gov. Milliken take a close look at Huron Township in light of events of the last several weeks. Mrs. Gloria Pichon, a member of the delegation, said.

"Mr. Rhoads campaigned as a conservative Republican last fall and won by a wide margin."

"In the event that the governor removes Rhoads for any reason, we will ask that a special election be held, rather than filling the post by a board appointment."

Mrs. Pichon reported that the group was not defending or supporting Township Clerk Moore, who but is interested only in a permanent replacement.

Council abuses sessions Romulus citizen claims

An alleged abuse of executive sessions by Romulus City Council has resulted in citizens' criticism and a challenge from a Romulus businessman and taxpayer.

Robert Plank of 14459 Merriman Rd., builder, appeared at the March 2 meeting of the council and challenged the council's "abuse" of executive sessions.

The appointment of Jack H. Trumble, 28305 Goddard Rd., Romulus, to fill a vacancy on the Board of Review brought the challenge.

When Plank asked if any other candidates were considered by the council, Jimmie Raspberry, president of the council, stated: "The only thing you need to know is what action council takes. Not what is discussed."

In a rather heated exchange, Plank accused the council of trying to circumvent the City Charter. He (Plank) stated that councilmen under the charter law must answer to roll call vote thus letting the public know where they stand.

When council reaches a consensus in executive session and brings one view to the public this is not only circumventing the intent of the charter, but is not conducive to Democratic principals of good government, Plank stated.

When questioned by this newspaper, he said, "I am not opposed to executive sessions when there is a need for them, such as when a person's name or character is to be discussed. However, as it is now handled, everything is cut and dried in executive session. And this infringes on the public's right to know."

Plank asked if anything council has to hide? Why an executive session? Why not let the public know what is going on? He said he would like to see all the groups to join with him.

Lent a Journey

Editor's Note: The following is the third of a series of Lenten Sermons by area pastors and leading churchmen. This week's article was submitted by Rev. Joseph F. Kernosek, pastor of St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Romulus.

By REV. JOSEPH F. KERNOSEK

The transfiguration of Christ. This event teaches us that our lenten journey leads to Resurrection with Christ at Easter.

During lent the church shows us Jesus in the glory of His Transfiguration on Mt. Tabor. This miracle of Christ's Transfiguration is a manifestation of His divinity, previous to His bitter passion and death.

As St. John says, "We have seen His glory of the Only-begotten of the Father, full of grace and truth. The transfiguration of Christ is given to us now, at this time of lent, as it was to three apostles, because of the Passion, in order to prepare us for it, in order to teach us that Christ's sufferings are His way to salvation and glory."

By this miracle Christ wanted to prepare His disciples for the dark hours of His suffering and passion, to strengthen them and confirm them in their belief in His divinity, while at the same time He prepared them also for the dark hours of their own suffering, and trials and persecution.

Peter thought salvation would be easy, without any suffering. He was so overwhelmed at the transfiguration of Christ, that he fell into the same mistake he was so prone to make, the mistake of thinking salvation was already here, that it was to be an easy, effortless, happy business without any suffering or death.

His words about building tents show us that he was thinking of the joyful Jewish feast on which the people built huts with branches or put up tents in memory of the Exodus, and spent the day in feasting. Peter clung to this idea that there was to be no suffering, Christ had to rebuke him for this very mistake earlier. (Mark 8:23-33).

The transfiguration reminds us that sufferings are not salvation itself, but the way to salvation. Christ's life goal was not His passion, not His death, but His glorious resurrection and ascension. Jesus did not prize pain and suffering. On the contrary, He spent his life in curing disease, and it is only through suffering and death that the resurrection can be attained. "Did not the Christ have to suffer these things before entering into His glory?" (Luke 24:26.)

Christ's resurrection and ours also was not just an aftermath, not just a "happy ending," but the great victory which He won by His suffering and death. This is the great lesson of lent.

We are preparing during this time, and all throughout our life, for the resurrection. Value self-denial, penance, not because we like suffering, but because these things are necessary for us now if we are to reach our goal. Like an athlete, he must practice, and train weeks and weeks, so that he may be able to play in some sport, like football, basketball, etc. but he does so so that he may be proficient in playing. Therefore, even as we fast, and do penance, we should be joyful and at peace.

The victory over sin and death has already been won. Christ did this. As we fast and do penance we are merely trying to make it more certain that we will share forever in Christ's victory. The life of the risen Christ, the divine life which we received in Baptism, has already been implanted in us.

During lent, we strive by our works of penance and more intense prayer life, to grow in the divine life. If we live Lent as the church urges us to, we shall share more fully in the life of the risen Lord at Easter and experience a foretaste of our own resurrection, as we celebrate the resurrection of the Lord.

Building group to study improvements

The first step in the formation of a new and improved Building Code for the community of Romulus has been initiated by City Council.

The council, at its Tuesday night council session, approved the creation of a Building Code Committee. It acted on the recommendations of the city administration and planning commission.

The city presently operates under the minimum standards of the Building Officials Conference of America (BOCA), which members of the city administration as well as members of the council now term to be inadequate to meet sought after standards in building.

The council approved the appointments to the Building Code Committee as recommended by Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael. They are:

Councilman William G. Oakley, Stonewall Whitworth, and city building inspectors Joseph B. Gallagher, who is manager of the Romulus Building Department, Jack Cant, Owen Richardson and Earl Jefferies.

Councilman Ellis T. Pennington made the motion to approve the appointment. He was supported by Councilman Brooker R. Edwards.

The committee will have the responsibility of upgrading present building code rules and regulations for subsequent council approval.

The committee was also empowered to draft professional help if required and again with council's consent.

Councilman James C. Stewart stated that council's action on approving the formation of a new and better building code was the best news he has heard during the last five years.

He stated that he had tried to get a stronger code several years ago but had no success. He reported that he has received a number of complaints on residential construction within the city and hopes that the new code will prevent further complaints.

Sex issue still burns in Huron

A recent piece of literature accusing School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff of arranging for the dissemination of sexually oriented material to Huron school children has raised many questions by residents of the community.

Following is Antcliff's explanation of events leading to the letter, which was signed by Mrs. Howard (Mildred) Bennett, Mrs. Erma Palmer, and Harry Hartsuff, school board members facing a recall election this month.

On March 25, 1970, the Wayne County Office of Economic Opportunity contacted the Huron school district regarding permission to use the Waltz Elementary School as a site to park a mobile health unit.

On April 1, 1970, the director of the project was asked to contact the superintendent of schools regarding the request.

On April 23, 1970, the Office of Economic Opportunity requested permission to use the Huron Elementary SITE, since that building was not in use and was a more centralized location to serve the adults of the community.

The unit was designed to provide the following services for residents of the area: physical examinations, blood

Half-day sessions

The Huron Township schools will have half-day sessions this Friday. School Superintendent Byron K. Antcliff announced Monday. Teachers will be attending curriculum day activities.

Students attending Huron High School, Huron Junior High School and Huron Elementary School will be dismissed at 11 a.m. and students attending elementary schools will be dismissed at 11:45 a.m.

St. Stephens Catholic School will also have half-day session, since students there are transported by Huron Township school buses.

District Judge James Stone. The trio was arrested Thursday after claiming luggage that had been snifft out by the Wayne County Sheriff's dog, Bomber."

The Metro Squad staked out the airport and waited for the American Airlines flight from Tucson. When the flight arrived the squad put its marijuana-sniffing pouch "Bomber" onto the luggage.

"The dog zeroed in on the three suit cases out of some 50 pieces of luggage," Wayne County Undersheriff Loren M. Pittman said.

The undercover agents watched the suitcases as the three men, all in their early 20's claimed the bags.

They were followed into the parking lot and arrested as they entered their car, Pittman said.

The Metro Squad took the men to court and were able to obtain a search warrant.

Deputies reportedly uncovered the 73 kilo-bricks of marijuana and some cocaine. The police chemist reported the kilograms weight under the standard 2.2 pounds. The average weight was approximately 1.99 pounds per brick, he said.

Two of the men apprehended were from Canada, the third from Michigan. However, Pittman refused to disclose the names of the suspects in fear of jeopardizing the case.

The undersheriff outlined some of the ramifications involved.

"One we have reason to believe the case may possibly have international ramifications," Pittman claimed.

"Two, another law enforcement agency from outside of the state thought enough of the Metro Squad to inform it of the narcotics arrival. This is inter-state police cooperation," he said.

"Third, the dog was used and his 'sniffimony' was credited in court," Pittman said.

"And fourth, the amount of drugs indicated that this was not small matter," he concluded.

A warrant is expected to be granted by Wayne County Prosecutors office sometime this morning. The men will be arraigned before 34th District Judge James Stone.

Who wears black hat in millage election?

To the editor:

Who are the "real black hat people" when it comes to asking for school tax millage? Unfortunately, as in the past, the first people to blame are the Van Buren school board members because they are the group that must ask for tax millage.

Impulsively, people have been willing to charge the school board with the sole responsibility for the need of added, or in the case of the March 18 vote only continuance of a specific millage.

Let's examine the true responsibility of our school board and school superintendent. Their prime purpose is to "Provide all of our children (yours and mine) with a quality education as specifically defined by the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools at the lowest possible cost.

Quality education can be broken down as follows:

North Central approved curriculum with programs to prepare all students for self sufficiency in life.

Modern Well maintained facilities and equipment.

Qualified, competent teachers and administrators, who are financially rewarded in accordance with their abilities and contributions. Note: Do you demand anything less for yourself?

Number of pupils per classroom limited to levels commensurate with sound educational practices.

Now, review the four items of a quality education again and ask yourself this question. Is there any item that is independent of cost? The answer is of course No. When a situation arises whereby any or all of these four areas of quality education cannot be met, it is the school board and superintendents further responsibility to inform the residents of the Van Buren School District.

Reactions to diatribe

a call for clarification

To the editor:

In reference to my correspondence which was recently printed in your paper, I should like to clear up a misconception. Reactions to my diatribe indicates that the reference to "Freeloaders" was personally directed. This was not meant to indicate that the individuals in question have any controlover the amount of taxes they do or do not pay.

My desire is to change the law so that these citizens are not put in the position of being a drain on the school district and the local government structure.

The residents and owners have obviously little or no control over the amount they furnish to the local programs. With or without their compliance they are placed in the position of being a drain on the local resources.

To my knowledge this is the only item which required clarification. All else stands as stated.

PHILLIP KEARNEY

Supports editor

To the editor:

I would like to add my comments to the article "Challenge Editor." I feel the blame for lack of pictures and publicity on St. Anthony's Church 25th Anniversary being in the Enterprise should be placed where it belongs. That is on the person elected to take care of the publicity for the affair.

I am speaking as a past chairman of publicity for St. Anthony's. I can only say that the editor and his staff were always gracious, willing and ready to put in the Enterprise pictures, articles, advertising or publicity on any main event we at St. Anthony's requested.

Therefore I feel our 25th Anniversary would have been covered by everyone's satisfaction if the person in charge of publicity had requested it.

Mrs. Robert Hoeft.

Our school board can only be held responsible for maintaining our present high level of quality education provided you the taxpayers are willing to give them the tools to do their job.

The second item previously mentioned is cost. I believe that you can now see that quality is for the most part a function of cost. So, if you reduce cost in the four areas of quality, you obviously reduce the level of the education our children receive. I can't believe that any one (knowingly) wants to do that to our children.

Let's explore cost a bit further. 65 to 75 Per cent of our school operational budget goes for salaries of teachers and administrators. As more families move into our school district, the number of children in school goes up.

Now, with an even increasing school population the school board can do one of three basic things. They can cram the new students into existing buildings. This approach obviously has limits but in any event by so doing the ability to teach goes right out the window.

They can restaff the school system with marginal teachers: - less experienced and - or non-certified. Again, education goes zlich. Or they can add schools and competent staff as the student population increases. This is obviously the answer if quality education is to be maintained.

The cost to educate each child in Van Buren schools is about $750 per year. Approximately 68 per cent of your property tax goes to our school system. So, multiply the number of children, you have in school by $750 and compare it with 68 per cent of your last year's property tax bill. You see, education in Van Buren schools is still one of the best bargains you can get today.

Now, back to my original question. "Who are the real Black Hat People"? Although our school district is larger than our township and City of Belleville, the vast majority of students came from families who live in Van Buren Township. For the past eight years, our township government has made no meaningful attempt to assure intelligent growth in our Township.

In the early sixties, we the taxpayers paid thousands of dollars for a Growth Development Plan which has been largely ignored. A present case in point is Independence Square.

The residents of Independence Square are mother and fathers who have every right to expect a good education for their children for I am sure their children are just as important to them as mine are to me.

However, because of past bungling by township officials, the developers of Independence Square were not required to set aside land for a new school or to contribute to the construction of a school. So what has happened. You and I, have to shell out $110,000 just for land. Is this the school boards fault? Is this the fault of our new neighbors in Independence Square? Absolutely Not.

So, when you vote on March 18 and you feel that somebody should be punished for asking you to continue a millage, don't blame the school board and don't punish our children. Just remember, you can slice it any way you want but the primary cause of today's cost problem is the ineptitude of past township administrations. They were the Black Hats.

Traffic fatalities

go down again

The traffic division of the State Police reported that Michigan's provisional traffic death toll for February was 106, or 37 or 21 per cent less than 141 in the same month a year ago.

It was the thirteenth successive month to show a reduction compared with corresponding months a year earlier.

The February count was also 36 less than the average of 142 for that month in the five years 1966-70. High for this month was 159 in 1964, low was 51 in wartime 1943.

The deaths brought the accumulated count this year to 233, a drop of 77 or almost 25 per cent compared with 310 in the same period in 1970.

Meanwhile, delayed death reports have raised the still provisional total for 1970 to 2,177, making it the fourth worst road death year on record. This is 310 or about 12 per cent less than the all-time high of 2,487 counted in 1969.

Make a contribution to good government

To the editor:

Now is the hour. It is time for every citizen in Van Buren Township to make a contribution for good government. By now, everyone has heard of the charges of attempted extortion by "an ex-township official."

Township Supervisor Gollwitzer has requested a grand jury investigation of the extortion attempt. This request was made to Wayne County Prosecutor William L. Cahalan.

So, if you sincerely want your township government cleaned up and past alleged wrong doers properly investigated, call Mr. Cahalan at 224-5788 and Mr. Richard Padziewski on 224-5751, and demand that they take action by obtaining an indictment.

When you call you will get the Grand Jury Secretary pitch but just tell them how you feel anyway. After you call once, call back again and again until they are forced to move. (As opposed to just investigating and nothing more).

It is very unfortunate but we will only get "justice" if we demand it. Therefore, it's up to you and I to stand up and be counted and be proud to say, "I stood up for justice and good government today."

You'll be surprised, this action will make you feel just a little bit taller.

A public hearing on "Drugs Prescribed to Control Classroom Behavior" will be held on March 15 in the State Capitol in Lansing, Senator William Faust (D-13th) announced Monday.

The hearing will be conducted by the Michigan Senate Education Committee. Faust serves on the committee.

"This hearing will be held so that we can thoroughly discuss an area of potential drug misuse that has been called extremely threatening to many of Michigan's children," Faust said.

"This area involves the apparently common practice of prescribing synthetic amphetamines, often referred to as speed, to control the behavior of overactive children in elementary and middle schools."

In a recent preliminary report of the Senate Education Committee, staff researchers pointed to a national hearing of a special congressional subcommittee in Washington on this same subject. At this hearing testimony was gathered from some of America's top educators which clearly charges many school systems with sanctioning the apparent indiscriminate distribution of potentially dangerous drugs.

"We have no way of knowing the extent to which children are being given drugs, such as the popular stimulant Retalin, in the classroom," Faust said. "The hearing will possibly help us find this out."

Faust also feels the hearing will give information as to how Michigan parents react upon being told their child needs to use drugs at such an early age.

Dr. Ralph Fabinovich, former director of Northville's

Hawthorne Center, has been a long-time skeptic of the use of stimulant drugs in the classroom.

Forcing the child into a situation of drug dependency should be approached with great caution," Dr. Rabinovitch warned recently. Drugs should not be used primarily for the convenience of parents or teachers.

Usually the reason for recommending Retalin by school people is their suspicion that the child suffers minimal brain damage. It is often so minimal as to be invisible to the experienced clinician. Fortunately there just aren't that many brain damaged children in Michigan. The problem, however, as we observe it today, is that in many communities Retalin is used indiscriminately without valid indication, in too large doses and far too long periods.

Dr. Rabinovitch plans to testify at the Senate hearing.

"Besides the aspect of drug overuse in Michigan schools is the fear that Retalin is becoming popular on the underground market," Faust said. "One of the most tragic sides to the Retalin issue has not yet been emphasized. An expert in the field of drug abuse has told us that in young adults, Retalin has been used to produce a 'high feeling'. It is even being injected intravenously," he added.

Faust further remarked "Amphetamine abusers are beginning to ask for Retalin. Sweden has banned its sale."

At this point, Faust emphasized, he is not sure that Retalin is being widely abused in Michigan. "We have been told that in some Michigan schools children line up in the cafeteria to be given their daily dosage. We also hear that administrative secretaries and teachers are often given the job of administering the drug. We must find out if this is true."

Copies of the preliminary report on "Drugs Prescribed to Control Classroom Behavior" are available through the Senate Education Committee, Faust said. Persons interested in securing the report, may contact him.

The hearing will be conducted in the Old Supreme Court Chambers, commencing at 2 p.m.

Dog noses to get count

A dog census is being planned for the City of Romulus, Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael announced.

The proposed dog census, to begin as soon as weather permits, was reported to City Council last week when the mayor requested additional help to conduct the census.

He also reported that at the recent program for mass vaccination of city dogs more than 250 dogs were vaccinated and licensed.

Dogs not licensed by March

1 mean an added cost of $1 to regular license fees.

Council President Jimmie Raspberry, in commenting on the request for additional personnel for the census, stated that one person had conducted the dog canvass previously.

Councilman Ellis T. Pennington reported that he had received six telephone calls March 1 and three on March 2 about dogs tipping over rubbish-filled bags and scattering their contents about. He urged the administration to take steps to have police ticket dog owners who allow their dogs to run at large.

Mayor Carmichael reported that he would bring back to council his recommendation on the additional personnel that may be required to conduct a successful dog census and bring dog owners in compliance with the city's dog ordinance.

Pack 830 runs derby

The fathers and sons of Cub Pack 830 worked feverishly for the past three weeks, preparing for a Pinewood Derby race.

In that period of time, small pine blocks were fashioned into sleek, speedy racers by joint teams of fathers and sons.

The race was held on March 4 at Cory Elementary School when 34 cubs and their dads arrived loaded with competitive spirit.

The race was run in heats with two winners selected from each den. Winners from den three were: Kurt Walter and Greg Pare; Den four winners were: Derrick Schultz and Robert Taylor; Den five winners were: Brian Christopher and James Doss; Webelos Den winners were:

Connelly Phillips and Aaron Chandler.

After an exciting race, judges announced the championship racer award winner to be Greg Pare of Den three. Connelly Phillips of the Webelos den placed second and Derrick Schultz of Den four captured third place honors.

Judges Charles Curley, James Petre and Charles Wands awarded trophies to the finalists and ribbons to all other competitors.

At the pack meeting, Cubmaster LeRoy Sims awarded Webelos Jerome Cusmano and Steven Schultz their Outdoorsman badges; Steven Sims earned his artist award, Connelly Phillips received a Sportsman award, Jerome Cusmano, Aaron Chandler, Steven Schultz, Steven Sims, Robert Gaun and Connelly Phillips all won their Athletes award.

Cub Scouts who were honored were: Brian Christopher and Steven Sagert who received their Wolf badge; Kenneth Kahl earned his Bobcat award and Charles Wands his seven-year pin. Robert Henderson was honored at the recent Blue and Gold Banquet with a candlelit graduation ceremony for having completed his Tenderfoot requirements to be accepted into the Boy Scout Troop.

The Scouts presented him with his new handbook and the Webelos gave him his scouts neckerchief slide.

Inspection fees studie

A new schedule of fees for electrical, heating and plumbing inspections in under study by city council members. The fee schedule was presented to Romulus to City Council on March 2.

After some discussion, it was recommended by the council that the three department heads appear before council to explain the fee schedule and supply justification for various fee costs listed in the schedules.

State drug law needs revamping

Attorney General Frank J. Kelley's ruling that a newly enacted Ann Arbor ordinance reducing penalties for possession of marijuana is unenforceable places the Wayne ordinance on marijuana possession under a cloud of confusion.

Wayne is caught between acting compassionately toward the first-time dope user and taking harsh steps set down by the state to "punish" the occasional pot smoker.

Detective Sgt. Raymond LeCormu explained that the Wayne ordinance, making possession and use of marijuana a misdemeanor, is designed to give the "good kid" who made a mistake a break.

"We don't want to put the first time offenders in jail with hardened criminals," explained LeCormu.

City Manager Wallace Arrowsmith agreed with LeCormu and emphasized that Wayne would not hesitate to punish repeated offenders or pushers with the maximum penalty set aside by state law.

We think the Wayne ordinance is the right avenue of attack to discourage first time offenders, while not punishing them too harshly. We urge the city fathers to keep their law in effect despite Kelley's ruling.

Still, we agree with the principal that a state statute should be supreme.

We see the only solution to the dilemma as being a new state law, which will not be so strict with first-time offenders.

We heartily agree that drug use is a serious situation. Yet by grouping occasional or experimental pot smokers in the same category as dope pushers, we try to kill a fly on the window with a baseball bat.

One section of the state law should be as harsh as presently written — 10 years in prison and up to a $5,000 fine. But we think this penalty should be used for either the person who openly pushed the drugs or carries on excessive amount on his person.

The pusher is the disease, while the user an only the symptom.

Less action against the symptom strong and action toward the disease, could, in the end, eradicate the drug sickness from our society.

Buy stock or play ponies

By JOHN CUNIFF

Properly helped along with provocative comment, the controversy between the New York Stock Exchange and New York City's new Off-track Betting Corp. could clarify the middle distinction between betting and investing.

No matter what exchange officials say, a good deal of the alleged investing in recent years has been gambling. But now the exchange has attacked OBC for implying that stocks and ponies are part of the same game.

The offending ads says: "If you're in the stock market you might find this a better bet." meaning an OTB account that, like a brokerage account, can be activated by telephone.

The NYSE chairman, Bernard Lasker, says the ad should be scratched, but many shareowners will agree with the retort of Howard Samuels, OTB president, who said: "I am sure that some of the horses feel they have been a better investment in the past few years."

It isn't clear just why the exchange got so upset as to fire off a telegram, but presumably it was concerned that its years of educational efforts aimed at the small investor would be undermined.

But why? Certainly the NYSE did a lot to educate and encourage the small investor, but some of its members began forgetting him in recent years. Some brokers even declined his business.

At any rate, the $2- better is simply not the same breed of cat

The term of office extends until Feb. 17, 1975.

Over 35 area organizations and individuals have received letters from the Department of Parks and Recreation asking for funds from the Michigan State Department of Natural Resources.

The request for funds has been filed by the City of Garden City under the State Recreation Bond Act.

Mayor Leonard Daksiewicz, a front running candidate for the office of mayor, withdrew just one hour before the deadline for withdrawal.

Daksiewicz, who was appointed mayor two years ago by his fellow councilmen, said, "I felt it was best that I withdraw with the situation being what it is."

The situation the mayor was referring to is the surprise candidacy of Councilman Jack Mulhern, who threw his hat into the mayor's race last week.

In a move which will initiate the development of one of Canton Township's first housing plats township trustees have signed a planned until development agreement with Rose-Hill Builders of Detroit for the proposed Fellows Creek Subdivision.

Teacher education a neglected area

By BYRON K. ANTCLIFF
Superintendent, Huron Public Schools

One of the most neglected areas in public school education is that of the responsibility of the local school district in regards to teacher education.

This applies to both the training of teachers at the college level and in-service educational experiences which should be provided for the staff of every district.

There are many changes in education which should be made, yet little time or money is spent on implementing such changes.

The teaching of reading is one example. Most of us agree that reading is the most important skill a child can obtain during his elementary school experiences.

Yet, strange as it may seem, few teachers are actually prepared to teach this subject. It is a rare teacher who has more than one course in the teaching of reading. In some cases an elementary teacher may not have any course work in the teaching of reading.

It is also doubtful if training at the college level is enough. What is needed is an intensive in-service effort in each district to provide more training in this area.

Such efforts should include a reading laboratory where teachers can obtain information regarding their effectiveness through exposure to various methods of teaching reading, a complete survey of materials and equipment available, development of a system-wide approach, and development of techniques for using teacher aides effectively.

Another important area is the support of the local district in participating in student-teacher programs with the various colleges and universities. Properly done this can bring many benefits to the district.

It allows the teacher time for small group instruction which might not otherwise be available.

It also provides the school district an opportunity to observe student teachers and to evaluate them as future teachers in the district. Contrasting this with means of hiring teachers, it can be easily seen that it makes for fewer mistakes in hiring procedures, thereby building a much stronger teaching staff.

Local citizens can do much to further these important tasks by asking their local boards of education what plans they have for in-service education and participation in student teaching programs if the district does not already have effective programs in these areas.

Retirement can be start of new career

A man is wisely advised to plan ahead for his retirement. Otherwise, when the time comes for him to give up his daily grind and he has nothing to do, he may curl up and die like a rusty leaf.

This, I trust, will not be my fate. I have a theory that life begins on R-Day-retirement day.

It is my theory that in a civilization most men earn their living doing such boring, humdrum, nitty-gritty tasks that is hard for them to stay awake let alone keep their self-respect.

They become inner hermits who feed their souls on the fun of daydreams, and it is chiefly these daydreams that keep them sane.

My goal on retiring is to change this picture a bit.

as the $2-million investor. A distinction that is growing clearer every day on the Big Board, where institutions do most of the trading.

In 1960, these institutions-banks, funds, insurers among them-accounted for only 31.4 per cent of public share volume on the exchange; that percentage is now close to 60.

In 1965, close to 55 per cent of all shareowners had incomes under $10,000. By 1970 that percentage had dropped to less than 30. Inflation and prosperity had something to do with it, of course, but institutional elbows did a lot to push aside the small odd-lotter.

In seeking to make the distinction between horses and stocks, the exchange noted that for years it has advised customers to observe four cautions:

"Invest only what you can afford; get the facts before you invest; invest only money not needed for regular expenses and for possible emergency reserves; get good advice."

Any good horse player will claim to do the same. In fact, there are more than a few bettors and investors who feel that the facts on horses are more available than on stocks.

And one thing the race track does much better than the stock market is to separate the advisory and selling functions. The fellow at the parimutuel window doesn't care what ticket you buy; the fellow who gives you advice on a stock is in the dual role of trying to sell you that stock.

Legislative tempo is on the rise

By EDWARD E. MAHALAK
STATE REPRESENTATIVE,
38th DISTRICT

The tempo of the 1971 legislature continues to increase as we reach mid-February. Bills are flowing into the House and Senate Hoppers, signaling a rising workload for the committees that will be considering the legislation.

I was personally involved in the introduction of several of the bills. One of them would provide for special school aid benefits for the Huron, Van Buren and Alport districts to compensate them for the additional costs involved in the students they received from the old Sumpter School System. This would be similar to the special allowances approved for the schools in the last session of the legislature.

A second bill which I introduced would make a bomb threat a felony and set a penalty of two to five years in prison. Bomb threats which terrorize and harass are steadily increasing in number.

I felt, in introducing this proposal, that stern action must be taken to combat this type of crime. The severity of the penalty could deter some persons from making bomb threats.

I reintroduced a bill which would set new standards for the collection, transport and disposal of solid wastes. Included would be the licensing of truckers who collect and dispose of refuse. A similar bill passed the House last session, but did not reach a floor vote in the Senate.

I likewise introduced once more a measure which would update state laws on the installation and use of seat belts. This would take into consideration the engineering improvements and recommendations that have taken place since the auto seat belt requirement law went into effect in 1965. Again, this was a bill that passed in the House last session, but did not reach the Senate floor for a vote.

A fifth bill which I introduced would make it unnecessary for each member of the state board of examiners for chiropractors to be a graduate of a different chiropractic school. This old restriction has made it difficult for the Governor to fill appointments on the five member board.

I also co-sponsored a bill that would permit public corporations to pay eight per cent interest on evidence of indebtedness.

It might be of interest to briefly review a few of the other bills introduced in the House by various other legislators. These proposals would:

Set noise level standards for motor vehicles and construction equipment.

Exempt the homesteads of senior citizens from school taxes.

Permit Detroit to increase its city income tax rate.

Provide family planning services for mental patients.

Require County Road Commissions and the Department of State Highways to plant a new tree for every tree they destroy.

Provide for scholarships for gifted children.

Require the legislature to pass its yearly School Aid bill before April 1.

Permit counties to spend funds to operate centers for senior citizens.

Outlaw phosphorus in detergents and cleaning compounds in order to prevent water pollution. (The City of Detroit recently enacted a local City Ordinance to do this.)

Require auto manufacturers to furnish a warranty of structural soundness.

Establish a State School of Optometry.

Increase the amount of the Homestead Property Tax Exemption available to senior citizens.

Require the State to reimburse counties for burial expense for Veterans.

Require the Wayne County Circuit Court to hold sessions in certain designated approved locations.

Board committee discusses expansion with residents

Some 50 residents of Belleville and Van Buren Township attended a meeting of the Wayne County Commissioners recently at which the proposed acquisition and expansion of the Willow Run Airport was explained.

The meeting of the Transportation, Industrial and Commercial Development Committee of the Board of Commissioners was transferred from a smaller meeting room to the County Building Auditorium because of the crowd.

Jes M. Davey, Managing Director of the County Road Commission, explained his agency's proposal in detail. Questions to Davey from the residents and committee members took up most of the two-hour session.

Davey stressed that the proposal is a tentative plan. He said it would be about a year before the Road Commission will be in a position to implement the plan. It would take another four years to complete the first phase expansion, he said.

Under the proposal, the County would float revenue bonds to finance acquisition of the Airport from the University of Michigan and to expand it into a major freight and general aviation airport. A $100 million bond issue is contemplated. It would require approval by the Board of Commissioners. No taxation would be involved. Most of the residents were concerned about the effect of the proposed airport expansion on their property.

Davey said that, as the plan stands now, about 200 homes, the Quirk Road Elementary School and the Van Buren Township Hall would be condemned for runway extension between the present eastern airport boundary and Belleville Road.

Some land would also be acquired south and north of the existing airport, he added. Davey said the total land acquisition would amount to about 1,800 acres. He conceded that this is the "touchy part" of the proposal. Existing runways would be extended from 7,500 feet to 12,000 feet in order to accommodate large freight airplanes.

Davey said the airport would handle a projected 400,000 landings and take-offs annually, compared with its present 160,000.

Davey said property owners whose property would be acquired, would receive the fair market value (the selling price at that time) based on Road Commission and outside appraisals.

One resident of the area east of the airport complained that announcement of the Road Commission proposal had already depressed the market price of homes in the area.

However, Davey said that the Road Commission may pay up to $5,000 more than the current market price "under some programs".

After a property owner agrees on a price, Davey said, the Road Commission policy is to pay the price and allow the family to continue to reside there on a rental basis until demolition is scheduled to start, usually six months to a year.

If the family moves out within 60 days, there is no rental charge, Davey said.

Davey said the development would spark an economic boom in what he described as "The Van Buren Corridor" by attracting business and industry and by generating employment.

As an example, he said, Detroit Metropolitan Wayne County Airport, a Road Commission operation, is the largest tax generator and employer in Romulus and represented a net economic gain of about $500 million to Romulus last year. He pointed out that all airport facilities leased by businesses pay regular property taxes.

He said traffic at Metropolitan Airport has reached 85 per cent of its saturation point which means another major facility must be developed or economic development of the area will be thwarted. He said Willow Run is ideal because it is an operating airport and will be at the hub of the freeway and rail network in western Wayne County.

County Commissioner Thomas P. O'Rourke, of Detroit, D-District 14, Chairman of the Commissioners' Committee, described the proposal as "an exciting concept". "But it has a lot of hurdles to cross," he added. Commissioner John N. Sabo Jr., Democrat from Taylor whose District 24 includes Romulus and Van Buren and Sumpter Townships, stated:

"This plan would affect a lot of people in the area, but, over-all, it would be good for Van Buren. It would mean a lot of business investment, a lot of jobs and a lot of tax revenue. Much of the business growth in Romulus and Taylor is a direct result of Metropolitan Airport".

O'Rourke said the Board of Commissioners will not be asked to pass on the plan until it has been developed to the point at which the board is asked to approve a bond issue.

Liquor hearing is slated

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has scheduled a hearing at 11 a.m. March 16 on a liquor law violation complaint lodged against the Belleville Bar, located at 453 Main St.

The complaint charges an alleged selling after legal hour offense.

The violation is reported to have occurred on June 28, according to investigators of the liquor commission.

Flapjack feast set

Plans are near completion for the big "Pancake Supper" which Cub Scout Pack 80 of Mt. Pleasant School will sponsor Friday evening, March 12, at the schools.

The price is $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children under 12 years. Serving will be from 5 to 8 p.m. Children under five will be admitted free.

White, in his 20th year at WSU, will present his slide-talk program "The 1968 Olympics" at 8 p.m.

While on his near-two-month leave from WSU to fulfill what has been the high point of his career, White took an enormous number of color slides of the trials, the camp and the Games.

The White is also a featured magician and was elected late fall as the 1971 President of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes of Michigan, Inc. He is WSU's advisor to the campus FCA huddle group and has been active for the past three years at the state level of the newly-founded Michigan FCA.

Mobile home parks--far cry from trailer courts

Mobile home living is community living, claim mobile park residents and mobile home dealers.

Convenient, practical and economical, the mobile home park of today is a vast step from the trailer courts of yesterday which have been called mere parking lots for mobile homes.

Today's mobile home parks offer modern technology in advanced street designs, underground electric, telephone and gas fuel utilities, public sanitary sewers, water and storm sewer facilities, paved streets and concrete walks.

the mobile home park Westpoint Manor in Wayne. The Giles', who have managed the park since it opened three years ago, have been mobile home dwellers since 1962, and they note a number of changes in the style of mobile home living.

Westpoint Manor provides laundry facilities for its residents as well as a recreation building and a post office pickup in the park. There is paved-off street parking for two cars per mobile home, drainage sewers with capacities of up to 50 times more than those 12 years ago, sidewalks, and 800 watt mercury vapor lighting for the whole park at night at Westpoint Manor.

These are the conveniences that weren't to be had 10 or more years ago, maintain the Giles'.

Mobile home dealer Ken Payton of Garden City Mobile Homes agrees with the Giles'. As a primary example, he cites the spaciousness of mobile homes today. Dimensions of the homes have grown from the 30 x 8 foot variety to roomy 65 x 12 foot models.

The older model trailers had space heaters for warmth, while today's mobile homes are heated by forced air furnaces, Payton explained. Air conditioning is also available now.

"The construction of mobile homes surpasses the FHA codes on housing," Payton stated, adding that mobile homes are now insulated like houses.

"You get a different class of people in mobile homes now. Before, they were mostly newlyweds and retirees. Now a good many of them are in the 25-35 age bracket with an average income of $12-14,000," Payton offered.

Mobile homes are practically maintenance free, the Giles' and Payton concurred.

from the mobile home park, the park has an agreement with the schools to try to keep the number of children who live in the park to an agreed-upon number.

Mrs. Giles explained that Westpoint has reached the specified number and although now is filled, will only accept families without children until the park goes below the number again.

Mobile homes parks of today are built with people in mind. Parks built many years ago were only to make money for the owners.

Group brightens old lives

Henry Mitz observed his 90th birthday Friday at Woody's Rest Home, Located on Chase Rd., Romulus.

If it hadn't been for the Romulus Community Workers group and their interest in the patients there, Henry might have spent his birthday much like he spends every other day.

But, Henry is one of six patients who, because they never have visitors, have been "adopted" by the Community Workers for special attention.

Mrs. Dorothy Martin, chairman for the group, had prepared a big brightly decorated cake; other members brought cards and a gift.

All of the patients at the home were as excited and happy as Henry to be having a party. Soon, those able to eat cake, were gathered in the lobby to sing "Happy Birthday," and to share his happiness.

The Community Workers keep lists of birthdates of all the patients at the home, sending each a card on his day. Every month they make at least one social visit, to exchange small talk.

Each special day, Christmas, Valentine's Day, Easter - is observed in some way to make the day happy for both the patients and the group members whose goal is "to help ourselves by helping others."

LET'S TALK ROTAVATION

The theory of Rotavation is to prepare the best possible seedbed in the least time with the least expense! Sound like a big job... look at the facts:

The Rotavator combines the work of three implements in one... Its powered blades break and turn the soil like a plow, slice the clods like a disc, and finish like the harrow... but even better. All of the soil and crop residues are perfectly blended and the seedbed is ready for planting after only one pass.

With Rotavation the rich topsoil stays on top where it belongs instead of being turned under. And instead of burying crop residues the Rotavator chops and mixes them into the seedbed to form soil building humus.

Instead of wasting tractor power, plowing deep, the Rotavator works only to seedbed depth... where seeds germinate and root structures form... and instead of leaving deep furrows exposed to erosion, the Rotavator leaves a level seedbed that holds moisture better.

That's what Rotavation is all about.

HOWARD ROTAVATOR

Great Lakes history will be on display

Great Lakes history and Detroit's marine tradition will be highlighted in a special display at the Detroit Antiques and Collectors Show-Sale in the Light Guard Armory, today through Sunday.

One of the earlier scenes in the collection, an 1837 steel of Westland. She invites you all to come on over and enjoy the Wednesday and Thursday Specials. See you then!

engraving, is identified as Detroit from the Canadian shore near the ferry, reminding the viewer that we have not always had the easy flow of international traffic afforded by the bridge and tunnel.

Boats at dock or plying the river in the pictures create almost as much interest as the changing skyline of Detroit. One picture of Detroit in 1820 includes a view of the famed "Walk-on-the-Water", the first steamboat on the Great Lakes.

Other historical pictures in the collection focus on one or two individual boats, such as the painting of the Fisher yacht, "Nakhoda", or the D & C Lines' "City of Cleveland."

One picture shows the little boat "The Detroit" which crossed the Atlantic in 1912, going to St. Petersburg, Russia. This boat was much smaller than the usual trans-oceanic vessel, and was a Detroit product, built by Matthews and powered by a Scripps engine.

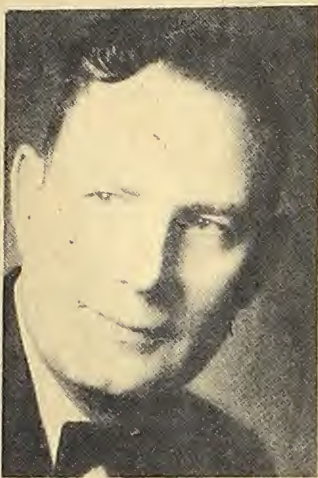

The paintings and prints are on loan from the private collection of Mr. and Mrs. Peter F. Henkel, whose marine hobby has grown to such an extent that they will fill their Harsen's Island cottage with their home's overflow and still have gauges, binnacles, Chadburns, and other relics left over.

Other unusual and rare and collectibles from all over the world will fill the show's 150 exhibits on two floors. The Detroit Antiques & Collectors Show ranks as the third largest show of its kind in the nation, including exhibitors from 100 of 25 states.

A qualified appraiser will be at the show daily, from 2 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p.m. to appraise items brought in, for $1 per item.

Hours of the Detroit Spring Antiques and Collectors Show-Sale, in the Light Guard Armory, 4400 East Eight Mile Road, will be from 1 to 11 p.m. the first four days, and from 1 to 9 p.m. on Sunday, March 14. Free parking is available on the grounds.

JULIAN GROMER

YMCA schedules travelog

The Wayne-Westland YMCA will present the travelog "Wheels Across America", filmed and narrated by Julian Gromer, at the Wayne Memorial High School Auditorium at 8:15 p.m., March 20.

The travelog shows 40 college boys who pedal the 3700 miles from San Francisco, to New York City. Averaging 120 miles per day, they leave San Francisco and ride into the granite valley of Yosemite.

Going over the 10,000 foot snowy Madre mountains of California they speed down into Death Valley which is a picturesque 120 degrees of heat.

Colorful stops are enjoyed at Las Vegas, Hoover Dam and the Grand Canyon. Monument Valley with its red rocks and windblown formations make a magnificent background for the shepherd and his sheep.

After Mesa Verde, the Rocky Mountains challenge the riders, but they make it across the plains states of Kansas, Missouri, Illinois and Indiana.

In New York City they compete with traffic as they appear on television and radio programs. The thrilling climax is their arrival at the Statue of Liberty, the symbol of freedom.

Tickets are available in the auditorium. For further information call YMCA at 721-7044.

"AN ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE" — Howard Jensen as Mayor Peter Stockmann and John Napierala and Mary Benson as Dr. and Mrs. Stockmann will appear in Arthur

Miller's adaptation of Henrik Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People". The play previews at Hilberry Theatre beginning tomorrow and officially opens next Wednesday.

'Enemy of the People' previews at Hilberry

Arthur Miller's adaptation of Henrik Ibsen's "An Enemy of the People" joins the Hilberry Theatre for previews Thursday, Friday and Saturday at 8:30. The official opening is scheduled for Wednesday, March 17, and the play will be repeated that week Friday, March 19, also at 8:30. It will continue in the repertory through May 15.

Miller was attracted to this modern classic because of its attack on the hypocrisy of vested interests. He translated the play into contemporary English attempting to peel away its Victorianism and show the timeless drama beneath it.

The story concerns a Dr. Stockmann, who with his family is cut off from the community because he threatens its prosperity by exposing the pollution in its medicinal waters.

The press won't report his findings. The town officials—including his brother, the mayor—refuse to give him a hearing. He loses his job and the townspeople boycott him and his family, ultimately uniting to drive them from their home.

The Hilberry production features John H. Napierala as Dr. Stockmann, Mary Benson as his wife, and Howard Jensen as his brother Peter.

John H. Napierala, a third year company member, has been seen before this year in such roles as Sasha in "Room Service," Banquo in "Macbeth," Ragueneau in "Cyrano de Bergerac," and Dr. Gibbs in "Our Town."

Mary Benson, Rosalind in the Hilberry's first season production of "As You Like It," returned last summer and has been seen recently as Pam in "Joe Egg," the three wives in "You Know I Can't Hear You When the Water's Running," Mrs. Gibbs in "Our Town," and Beatrice in "Much Ado About Nothing."

Howard Jensen, a second year actor in the company, has been seen as Cassius in "Julius Caesar," Binion in "Room Service," de Guiche in "Cyrano de Bergerac," and Don John in "Much Ado About Nothing."

Other principal roles are played by Jeff Rodman, Terry Baker, James Ryan, Fred Vaugois, Jo Anne Belanger, Robert Jackson and James Corrigan.

Direction is by Don Blakely, with scenery by Russell Smith, costumes by Vic Leverett and lighting by Gary M. Witt.

Tickets at $2 to $3.25 are available at the Wayne State University Theatre Box Office in the Hilberry lobby or at J. L. Hudson's. Complete schedule and ticket information may be obtained by calling the Box Office at 577-2972.

Henry Mancini to appear at University of Detroit

Henry Mancini along with his 40-piece orchestra will appear Friday, March 19, 8:30 p.m. at the University of Detroit Memorial Building.

Tickets for the concert, sponsored by U. of D.'s Department for the Performing Arts, are priced at $6, $5, and $4 and are available at the Performing Arts Office in the U. of D. Student Union. Tickets are also available at J. L. Hudson and Grinnell stores.

(On Sunday, Feb. 14, the entire ticket stock for the Mancini concert were stolen.

A completely new and different set of tickets has been printed. U. of D. officials urge the public to buy tickets from only authorized box offices: the University of Detroit, Hudson's and Grinnell's. No individual is authorized to sell tickets.)

Henry Mancini has made an indelible mark in almost every area of the music world.

His innumerable awards include Oscars and Grammys for his own compositions and unique arrangements.

Award winning Mancini movie scores include "Breakfast at Tiffany's", "The Days of Wine and Roses", "Charade", "Wait Until Dark" and "The Great Race". The popular TV shows "Peter Gunn" and "Mr. Lucky" were also composed and arranged by Mancini.

He has also received first place honors in national magazine polls conducted by "Playboy Magazine", "Billboard" and "Cashbox."

Mail orders are accepted at the Performing Arts Center; University of Detroit; Detroit, Michigan 48221. A self-addressed stamped envelope should be included with a check or money order made payable to U. of D. Performing Arts.

Della Reese opens tomorrow at Pavilion Room

Della Reese, coming to Lofy's Beautiful Pavilion Room Thursday is looking forward to renewing old acquaintances with many of her friends from the Detroit area. Della was born in Detroit on July 6, 1932.

One of a family including four sisters and brothers, Della began singing in church at the age of six.

When she was thirteen, the great gospel singer, Mahalia Jackson, on a tour through Detroit, heard the young singer and gave Della her first big break by hiring her to sing with the Jackson troupe. Della sang for Mahalia for five consecutive summers.

Since that time she has become famous for her lyrical and melodic interpretation of the romantic ballad and hard-driving song. Her unusual voice quality and unique singing style have resulted in the creation of many record hits, topping the million mark and the making of some of the greatest standards such as "Don't You Know."

Showtime for Della will be at 9:30 and 11:30 Monday through Saturday.

The Johnny Trudell band, which will back Della, plays for dancing before and between each show.

PTO schedules plans for year

The Elwell Elementary School's executive PTO committee met last week to formalize plans for the rest of this year's activities.

Present at the meeting held Tuesday, March 2, were President Chester Wojcie, Secretary Mrs. Hazel Cleghorn, Mrs. Bertha VanderCook, assistant treasurer Mrs. Irene Shanks, reporter; and Mrs. Lucille Dickerson.

A meeting was set for 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 16, to discuss the proposed school bond issue with members of the Van Buren Board of Education and to welcome the new principal William Ohizmar.

Plans were also made for a Pancake Supper to be held at 5 p.m., Tuesday, April 1 in the Elwell gym. The price of the tickets will be $1 for adults and 75 cents for children. Wallace Johnson, local Belleville resident will cater the dinner.

Plans were also made for the annual Elwell PTO Carnival, April 30. Meetings have been set up for 7 p.m. on March 30 and April 22 to plan the carnival.

The PTO is also checking out educational trips the adults in the community may take.

2-In Memoriam

JERRY: OUR son is missed awfully. Watkins Family, 34966 Richard St. Wayne.

IN LOVING MEMORY of my dear husband, Woodbury J. McNutt. "Memories are treasured; no one can steal. There is a heartache no one can heal. Smiling and happy, always content, loved and respected wherever you went. Our hearts still ache with sadness, our eyes shed many tears. God alone knows how much we miss you as this ends the third sad year. Sadly missed by wife, Dorothy, and children, Robert, Marcella McNutt; Carol and Kevin Carrico, and grandson Michael Alan McNutt.

IN LOVING MEMORY of our beloved sister, Eva Gentz, who passed away March 8, 1970. "Our home is not the same, Eva, since you're gone. We will always remember, no matter how long." Sadly missed by brother, Eugene, and Florence.

3-Cards of Thanks

WE WISH TO THANK our many friends and good neighbors for the lovely cards, cut flowers, plants and food we received on our 60th Wedding Anniversary. Hearing from so many friends, surely brightened our day.—Ernie and Fannie Fullford

Romulus captures district cage title

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

Two brothers — one beginning his cage career, the other nearly winding it up — sparked Romulus to an overwhelming 67-47 victory over John Glenn Friday night to give Coach Dave Court's Eagles the district class championship.

Lanky Nate Davis, a 6-4 senior, and his brother, John, a freshman, provided Romulus with the impetus that won the title and put the Eagles in the regional tournament. (The regional began last night for Romulus at Adrian.)

used its fast-break and stellar defense to oust the hosts who were put out of the title picture before the half when the Eagles had accumulated an insurmountable 35-17 lead.

Romulus had a 19-9 first quarter edge and a 54-30 third quarter margin over the Rockets who beat Taylor Kennedy and Wayne Memorial to qualify for the title showdown.

In their lone preliminary game, Romulus received a scare from Taylor Center, beating the Rams 51-50 in the last second.

"We were shaky in our first district appearance," admits Coach Court, "but let's not forget that we are starting two sophomores and a freshman and because of that inexperience we could have trouble.

Nate, who is making an assault upon almost every cage record held by Shaler Halimon, the former Romulus cage great, frustrated Glenn's defense with his play in the pivot and the boards.

Though three men were on him at times, Nate still managed to come away with 24 points and 18 rebounds. His brother had 18 points, eight of those in the first quarter.

Romulus also received double figures from Calvin Harris who pumped in 12 points.

The Eagles lived it up in the districts at the expense of their ability to capitalize at the free throw line. They made 21 of 26 against the Rockets, but more important, they turned away with 17 of 21 against Taylor, which meant the difference in the game.

"Our exceptional performance at the foul line," said Court, "undoubtedly saved us. It just goes to show how important free throws are to the game.

Taylor was one second away from ousting the newly-crowned champ as 6-8 pivotman, Dick Mitchell's tapin was ruled made after the final buzzer.

The basket meant the difference.

Up to that point it was a see-sawing affair as Taylor grabbed the initiative and the lead in the first quarter 16-10. Davis brought back his team as he dumped in 10 of 26 points to lead his team to a 28-25 halftime margin.

Again the pesky downriver quintet rallied, this time to a 41-31 third quarter, limiting the Eagles to a mere five points in the third quarter.

However, Davis again came through in the last stanza as he drilled in 11 more points to lead the Eagle comeback.

Davis' had 26 points for the game while John finished with 10.

Taylor had three players in double figures with Bob Burrus' 12 high for the team. Don Kissell counted 11 and both Mitchell had finished with 10.

Fouls stop Belleville

Scrambling to catch up can be costly as Belleville cagers learned from Ann Arbor Huron who knocked out Coach Allen Gates' Tigers in the semi-final round of the Class A district high school basketball tournament at Adrian last week.

Always close, but never able to grab the lead, Belleville raced from a 64-51 third quarter deficit to take over momentarily before yielding 87-77 to their semi-final opponent.

During that comeback, Gates lost his leading rebounder Tony Ogletree and senior sharpshooter Garrade Pettus, both fouled out. Before winding up on the bench, Ogletree had 16 rebounds and 13 points and Pettus accounted for 19 points.

"We went into the game groping our way," said Gates afterwards. "We lost our poise in that last quarter when we lost Ogletree and Pettus. They remained cool."

It was a see-sawing affair all of the first half and most of the second. Ann Arbor worked its way to a 18-17 first quarter advantage and held on to a 38-36 intermission lead.

Huron outscored Belleville 26-15 in the third frame with Ogletree on the bench for most of the battle

Belleville managed to erase the deficit to four points, but the Tigers never were able to muster enough scoring power to break away.

Pettus, who scored seven baskets and five free throws, was the Tigers' leading scorer with 19. Also in double figures for Belleville were Marty Miller, who contributed 18 points and Ogletree who finished with 15.

The loss left Belleville with a 9-10 record and a third place finish in the Suburban Six Conference, their best finish in recent years.

way of easy victories over Taylor Center in the first round and convincing victory over John Glenn in the Final. The Eagles will meet the Bulldogs of Robichaud in the first round of regional competition.

Sports Meridian

District playoffs revisited

By TOM MOORADIAN
Sports Editor

When it comes to producing district basketball champs, this year's version of the Mid-Wayne probably has no equal in the state.

Of the six teams affiliated with the conference, three emerged from the districts with titles. They include Garden City East, Robichaud in Class A — and Inkster in Class B.

The league also has in its circles Dearborn Heights Annapolis, Lutheran West and Taylor Center. Taylor was denied championship status in its 51-50 loss to Romulus, which wound up as the district champ at John Glenn.

And next year Wayne Memorial will join the Mid-Wayne Conference ranks.

Pity the Zebras.

But to Belleville's Sam Vicchy whose swimmers will have to contend with Dearborn next year when the Pioneers, along with Edsel Ford, will gather in the expanded Suburban Six Conference.

Dearborn is considered one of the best teams in the state perennially.

And Edsel Ford also isn't what one would label a pushover in the pool.

One coach who probably is "awesomely happy" to see Dearborn depart is Wayne Memorial's head swim coach Rick Savage. The Zebras have never beaten either Dearborn or Edsel in dual meet competition since the Sports Meridian can recall — and that goes back a long time.

BILL PINNELL
Also Mr. X

Mr. X comes to life

If you kept close tabs on the Prep Basketball Prediction panel this season, you know that there was one panelist who always picked Garden City West to win.

And the panelist hid under the name of Mr. X.

The man behind the "X" is none other than Bill Pinnell, athletic director at Garden City West High School.

Belleville places 3rd Cullin wins swim title

A mere 10 points separated the first and fourth place teams at the Suburban Six Conference swimming & diving meet held at Schoolcraft Community College last week.

And a judge decision denied Belleville from a possible conference championship as Coach Sam Vicchy's Tigers were forced to settle for a third place at the meet with a total of 52½ points.

Plymouth nipped dual meet winner, Livonia Bentley, 58-57 at the league meet and by virtue of its dual meet record was placed second for the over-all season.

The new conference champ is Bentley. Belleville finished with 52½ points, Allen Park had 48½, Redford Union, 40, and Trenton, 28.

Going into the final event, the 400-yard freestyle relay, Belleville was still in contention. The Tigers needed to ring up a first place to get the 14 points.

With Terry Mills, Kevin Owens, Kim Stone and anchorman Jeff Fry, Belleville raced to a 3:29.8 finish, but the outcome of the event was so close that it was left to the judge to decide. Bentley was given the victory. The winners were clocked at 3:29.4.

Fry, the Tiger anchorman, flew to the finish and was able to make up a two-body deficit. The foursome's time was a Belleville record.

Bentley's 3:29.4 was posted as a league mark.

Belleville came away with one league champ in Curt Cullin who stroked a 4:12.6 for the 400-yard freestyle event.

The Tigers also erased five school records, including the time in the 400-yard freestyle relay. Other times that established records were Jim Ackron's 2:11.0 for the 200-yard individual medley, good enough for third place at the meet; Dean Ackron's 59.4 for the 100-yard butterfly; Jim Ackron's 1:07.0 for the 100-yard breaststroke.

The medley relay foursome of Scott Stone, Terry Mills, Dean Ackron and Kim Stone powered its way to a second place finish which was good enough for another school record.

"We just couldn't hold them," said Huron Coach Marty Hotvedt who rounded out his first year as the Chiefs head coach with a 9-9 record.

"Though I'm always disappointed in losing one, I must say that I was extremely pleased at our team's performance."

Flat Rock held leads of 16-11 and 30-21 for the first two quarters.

Huron made it into the finals by blasting its way past St. Francis Cabrini of Allen Park, 81-61, in the semi-final round. Coach Hotvedt had his second stringers in for most of the second half.

Gorham, playing less than a half, poured in 22 points for individual scoring honors while Suemnick, Don Mittlestat and Glenn Dregansky had 12 apiece and John Ruby counted 10.

The victory was Huron's ninth in 18 starts this season. Of the season, Coach Hotvedt said he had to be pleased.

"Entering the second half of the season we were down 2-7," he said, "and our boys came back to even up the record at 9-9. What coach would be dissatisfied with a comeback like that?"

Myers bows as coach

Wayne Memorial will not only enter a new basketball conference next year, but it will have to do so without the services of their veteran varsity coach.

Doug Myers, who for the past six years guided the Zebras' cage destiny, announced last night that this was his last year as the high school's head coach.

Despite a dismal 3-15 won-loss record for the season, Myers' resignation came as a surprise.

"I told George Bell (principal) in December after we lost to Belleville that this would be my last season with the team," said Myers.

"Though it was only a verbal announcement, on Monday I will hand in my resignation."

Myers added, "that I have given it a try and it hasn't worked out. Maybe with a change of face their will be some changes in attitudes."

Playing in leagues, (Huron Rouge and the Sauk Trail) that have been dominated by Ypsilanti, Myers' teams had their best year in 1966-67 when the Zebras emerged with an 8-9 over-all record.

Basil Stevens, editor, blew his early season prediction of a sweep of the panel and wound up in eighth position with a record of 109 correct against 50 misses.

Jim Carravallah, reporter, wound up with a record of 105 correct against 54 misses for ninth place.

Dave Sheppard, advertising salesman, joined the panel for the first time and had a rough season. Sheppard brought up the rear with a mark of 92 right and 67 wrong.

SkillCenter film shown

What does an Area Occupational Skill Center look like? Where do the students come from who attend? What do they do when they arrive? How long do they stay?

Questions you might have about the operation, the need, and the effectiveness of an Area Occupational Skill Center can be answered by viewing the film "The Genesee Skill Center."

Presently, Wayne County

educators and citizens are studying the need for the initial establishment of Four Occupational Area Centers. Final report of the study has been set for March, 1971.

To better understand the operation of an Area Occupational Center, this Genesee Skill Center film has been purchased by the Wayne County Occupational Advisory Committee. Film covers the daily activity of over a thousand students using the center in the Flint area.

Educators in the Wyandotte and Flat Rock school districts have viewed the film. For the next two weeks the film will be booked into the Livonia school district.

If your school district, civic group, or educational organization is interested in seeing this film, please call Occupational Education (274-9010, ext. 6, or 728-1110) for a future booking.

Ladies can be 15 pounds lighter by Easter Sunday

In four weeks and four days it will be Easter Sunday.

By that time, Mrs. Chris Benton, president of the Hi Low chapter of the Buxom Belles says you could be at least 15 pounds lighter and wearing an Easter dress that's a couple of sizes smaller.

You could, that is, if you come to Cory Elementary School next Tuesday night and get started on a program of weight reduction.

Approximately 25 ladies meet weekly at the school to hear talks about nutrition, take part in an exercise period, get weighed (and penalized 10 cents a pound for gains) and to enjoy the company and encouragement of others with the same problem.

Camp fire fest slated

The Detroit Archdiocesan Committee for Camp Fire Girls announced that it will sponsor the Annual Anniversary celebration at 11:00 a.m. on Saturday, March 20 at St. Bartholomew Church. A special Mass will honor the 61st anniversary of Camp Fire Girls and also publicly recognize Marian Medal recipients during the past year.

116 aviation schools in state

There are 116 licensed aviation schools in Michigan, an increase of four during the last year, the Aeronautics Commission of the Michigan Department of Commerce reported recently.

Sixty-six of the schools are approved for veterans training, the commission said, and all but 15 offer both flight training and ground school courses.

Thirteen of the schools are qualified to offer airline transport training.

The Rev. Edward F. Haggerty, Detroit Archdiocesan camp fire chaplain, will also present the St. Anne Medal to Camp Fire Leaders who have made an outstanding contribution in the spiritual welfare of girls in the program.

All Camp Fire girls and leaders of Catholic faith are most cordially invited and urged to attend the special Mass and recognition ceremonies.

The spelling bee took one hour and the winning word was "adjustment."

Mrs. Benton is proud of the successes of many of the members who have lost large amounts of weight but she is also pleased with the 14 girls who, at last week's meeting, had lost 40 pounds between them.

Meetings, she says, start at 7 p.m. and any lady who would like to drop in and observe is welcome. Should anyone wish to join the group, there is a monthly membership of $1.25.

Among the special programs offered are those designed for the pregnant Belle, emphasis on keeping weight within reasonable gains during pregnancy, and a new mothers' program that gives her a cash award for weighing in at the same poundage that she was when she became pregnant. Also there is nutritional advice for the new mother.

"It's really a wonderful program," said Mrs. Benton, "because, you know, every fat woman is crying inside, no matter how jolly she may try to be."

Staff to study FHA program

A special subcommittee of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners plans to set up its own investigative staff to look into alleged abuses of Federal Housing Administration (FHA) programs.

The five-member subcommittee met last week with county and federal officials to lay the groundwork for its probe. Commissioners Rose Mary C. Robinson, of Detroit, D-District 17, and Paul Silver, Detroit, D-DIST. 11 are co-chairmen of the subcommittee.

Its other members are Charmie Currie, Detroit, D-Dist. 6; Edward Jones, Detroit, D-Dist. 16; and William G. Suzore, Lincoln Park, D-Dist. 22.

Barker appointed

The Van Buren Township Board has approved the appointment of Glenn R. Barker, 47016 McBride to the township recreation commission.

Barker, an insurance agent and former bank cashier, will fill a vacancy on the commission.

The subcommittee was appointed by John J. McCann, Livonia, D-Dist. 26, chairman of the board's Health, Education and Welfare Committee, who attended the meeting.

McCann had declared earlier that the evidence was such "as to almost overwhelmingly indicate a pattern of fraud" in housing sales under FHA programs.

The subcommittee agreed to ask New Detroit, Inc. for a grant to help pay the cost of hiring special investigators. They also asked that the Prosecuting Attorney William L. Cahalan assign an assistant and one of his investigators to the subcommittee.

U.S. Attorney Ralph B. Guy Jr., who attended the meeting, pledged his cooperation with the inquiry. He said the alleged abuses are also under investigation by his office.

The board acted as a result of disclosures of numerous instances in which investors bought old homes in the inner city at low prices and later sold them to low-income families at much higher prices on a basis of high FHA appraisals.

Jay Nolan, chief of the Prosecuting Attorney's fraud division, predicted that prosecutions will result from the disclosures. He referred to "sharp operators and shady dealers," but was not specific about possible defendants.

Silver said the subcommittee will ask New Detroit for about $25000 for hiring investigators.

Mrs. Robinson said the subcommittee will hold public hearings to give citizens an opportunity to report alleged abuses of FHA programs. The hearings will be scheduled after the subcommittee has completed its organization, she said.

R. B. Shelton, director of the Wayne County Department of Social Services, agreed to provide information to the subcommittee. He was asked to search the welfare roles and report cases in which FHA-insured mortgages have been foreclosed on welfare recipients and cases in which emergency welfare grants had to be made to prevent threatened foreclosures.

Silver pointed out that the Board of Commissioners has to power to subpoena witnesses in an inquiry, though the power has not been used in recent years.

He said he was "disappointed" that William C. Whitbeck, head of the Detroit office of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD), did not respond to an invitation to attend the meeting. Whitbeck's office administers the FHA programs in the metropolitan area.

LEARNING A TRADE — Charles Prasinski, member of the auto mechanics class at Romulus Senior High School, is learning to turn a brake drum which is among the skills acquired by the vocational students participating in the auto mechanics class. The group meets afternoon and Saturdays with day school instructor E.L. Sheffield.

Long lines will await last-minute plate buyer

If long lines, extended waits, and pushing bouts with fellow procrastinators are your "bag"....then wait until the last couple of days before the deadline of March 31 rolls around to buy your license plates.

But if you are allergic to any or all of the above, sage advice from the Secretary of State's office...."don't delay, buy your plates today."

In early March, Michigan was nearly 90,000 behind last year, says Secretary of State Richard H. Austin.

"The first three weeks in March are critical," Austin asserted. "Later than that and I'm afraid the plate buyer will find himself in a crowded situation."

A person may use the prepared application mailed to him in lieu of a title, Austin said. He also needs proof of liability insurance, money to pay for the plates and an added $1 for the Motor Vehicle Accident Claims Fund. If uninsured, the vehicle owner must pay $35 into the Fund and he remains uninsured.

Austin is presently trying to get the Legislature to adopt a bill which would permit branch offices to accept checks instead of cash which is now required.

New law adopted for subdivisions

A new and revised Subdivision Ordinance for the Township of Van Buren has been approved and adopted by the township board.

The township board's action followed a series of meetings of township officials on the drafting of an improved and stronger ordinance regarding subdivisions in the township.

The ordinance establishes

Troop 793 camping champions

Boy Scout Troop 793, sponsored by St. Anthony's Church of Belleville, has received word that the troop is camping champion of the Huron District for 1970, camping chairman Ray O'Neil announced.

National standards for troops to receive awards are at least 10 days and nights of camping in a year and troop 793 topped them all with 30 days and nights. They were in competition with 40 other troops.

Scoutmaster Anthony Talaga reports plans for breaking their own record in 1971.

Any boy, eleven years of age and up, is welcome to join this troop. Meetings are held at 6:30 p.m. in the Father Folta building, located behind the Church, on Monday evenings.

regulations governing the subdivision of land and provides for the procedure, preparation and filing of plats with the township.

The ordinance also provides rules and regulations and requirements in regards to conformity to the township comprehensive development plan in platting subdivisions.

Trustee Joseph Hogan made a motion for adoption of the revised subdivision ordinance by the township board. He was supported by board member Mrs. Erma J. Payne. The board unanimously approved the motion.

The ordinance became effective upon its publication last Wednesday.

Metcalf-Baldwin nuptials preceded by shower

SUZANNE METCALF of Ypsilanti, spring bride-elect, had the pleasure of opening dozens of gifts Sunday at the shower given in her honor by Ellen Baldwin. Held at the Manley Baldwin home on Ryznar Drive, the party was attended by some 25 guests from Ypsilanti, Romulus, Whitaker, and Belleville.

At the periodic ringing of a bell, Suzanne was presented with a package to open - games being played in the interim. Highlighting the activities was the creation of a scrapbook for the honoree and her fiancé to look back on. Each guest was given a page from the book, magazines, scissors, and glue and was asked to compose a picture story of any phase of the couple's wedded life. Evelyn Krug and Lee Smith won prizes in that category while Helen Miller, Sharon Hook, Beulah Crowe, Kathy Bleeker, Olive White, Addie Ryznar, Marie Domicik, Marian Garlick, Margie Boles, and Eleanor Ackerman copped subsequent awards.

Winners were told to choose their prizes by pulling a crepe paper streamer which ran from the cluster of wedding bells to a grouping in a large laundry basket.

Assisting the hostess throughout the afternoon were Margaret Boles, Marian Garlick and Margie Boles. After the group had been served a buffet luncheon, the honoree completed opening the miscellanea for her new home.

Suzanne will be married to Bob Baldwin April 10 at the Forest Avenue Baptist Church in Ypsilanti.

Aunt and nephew share birthday honors

FEBRUARY 21 IN the Sell family is a time for a dual celebration, it being the birth date of Eileen Lillian Sell and her nephew, David Donald Staffeld.

Mr. and Mrs. Denny C. Kalette of Mahwah, New Jersey have announced the engagement of their daughter, Lisa, to Donald A. Ferrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jack Ferrett of Belleville.

The bride-elect was graduated last year from Mahwah High School and is presently attending Middlebury College, Middlebury, Vt., where she is studying science.

Her fiancé graduated from Belleville High School in 1966 and attended the University of Michigan for one year before joining the United States Navy.

He was graduated first in his class in 1969 from the Naval Academy Preparatory School and is presently involved in communications support activities aboard the Submarine Tender USS Orion, stationed in Charleston, S.C.

A summer wedding is planned.

MISS KALETTE

Judge Stone speaks at March BPW meet

The March meeting of the Belleville B.P.W. Club was under the direction of the Legislative Committee with Vira Petraska serving as chairman and Mary Ferrett, Marie Clayton, Elsie Perry, Doris Roe, and Margaret Saunders as committee members.

Guests for the evening were 34th District Court Judge and Mrs. James B. Stone. Judge Stone's topic as he addressed the group was the 'Inner Workings of the District Court.'

Two new members were added to the club roll—Joan Oddy and Dell Sechowski.

The Personal Development Committee will be in charge of the April meeting with Dorothy Westergard acting as chairman and Stella Adams, Elda Bohl, Virginia Grist, Ruth Soupp, Betty Kalasz, and Dorothy Curtis assisting.

Nat'l. parks increasing

National parks, monuments, seashores, wilderness areas and wild rivers now cover 28,000,000 acres—an area bigger than the seven smallest states combined—and the pace for such set-asides has quickened in Congress. In most of them, no hunting is allowed.

Males and female chickadees look alike.

SPELLING CHAMPS — Haggerty Road Elementary School held its annual spelling bees in the fifth and sixth grades recently with Jan Wisniewski (left), daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wisniewski of 40300 Tyler Road, and Audrey Chudzinski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Chudzinski, Jr. of 11561 Savage Road, as sixth and fifth grade winners, respectively. The school bee, held February 24, was won by Jan, a member of James Fitch's class.

The party, held at the Harold Sell home in Romulus, marked Eileen's ninth and David's third birthdays. David's parents, Donald and Ann Staffeld of Romulus were co-hosts for the buffet lunch which was served. Members of both families attended and presented the pair with many appropriate gifts. Eileen was especially thrilled with her 'big present'—the mother sheep and baby lamb she's always yearned for.

Polynesia on agenda for the Webers

ONE HAS ONLY to glance at Ray and Lil Weber to know they've not spent their time lately shoveling snow or bemoaning a too-long winter. Their gorgeous tans speak for themselves!

Taking their leave January 19 (during one of our blizzardy onslaughts) they winged their way across country to San Francisco where they 'did' the Fisherman's Wharf area for two days - dining on the coast's fine seafood, riding the cable cars, etc.

Then it was off for Hawaii and two weeks of Waikiki's ideal weather. Pearl Harbor, the pineapple fields, the Polynesian Culture Center, the zoo and aquarium, and the Kodak show were but a few of the spots on their itinerary.

They also got a look at Island life, non-tourist style, as the managers of their motel, Everette and Pat Purcell, played guide for them. The 'Sea Spree' (an Island version of our country fairs) and native-style cook-outs are some of the happy memories from their association.

Saving aloha, they flew to Auckland, New Zealand where they rented a car and toured both the North and South Islands seeing the Franz Josef and Fox Glaciers, visiting the gold fields, stopping to view the volcanoes, and watching jade being cut, polished and set at the jade factory near Hotiki.

The section around Rotorua, known as the thermal area, was one of the most fascinating points of their trip as they saw the underground steam being harnessed in the power plants. They also saw the Maori Indians in their culture center, watched the native dances and learned the history of their settling.

A boat trip to Milford Sound was also on the agenda before they traveled to the Fiji Islands for a two-day, relaxing stay.

Then it was back to Hawaii for four more days and finally on to the Mainland where they concluded their six-weeks trip with a visit to their daughter, Sue Weber, a stewardess for United Airlines, makes her home in Los Angeles and for two days she played host to her parents before they made the final flight back to Michigan.

Bridge luncheon says farewell

COME APRIL THE Brain Street neighborhood will be missing the presence of the Bob Kreie family who is moving to Ogunquit, Maine and going into the gift shop business.

Saturday, the 27th, Betty's bridge club tossed a farewell luncheon in her honor and presented her with a memento of her two year's association with the group—a bracelet with a deck of cards charm attached.

Three tables were in play at Gerry Kelly's home on Beck Road following the noon luncheon. Co-hostesses Shar Tator and Carol Fitch welcomed Avis White, Wilma Tator, Pat Kissel of Plymouth, Jo Gerrish, Shirley Hammond, Joyce Maton, Pat Touse, and Jean Troxell to the party.

Factories to gain

To meet housing goals set by Congress for the 1970s, half the new housing units will have to be produced off-site, that is, factory built, asserts the U.S. Forest Products Laboratory.

First set of grading rules for lumber, crude but workable, is credited to Swan Alverdson, a Scandinavian, and the year 1754.

THREE DIMENSIONAL ART — As the solution of a class problem in three dimensional art at Eastern Michigan University, Deborah Sinkiewicz, Belleville's 1969 Junior Miss and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sinkiewicz, 358 Liberty St.,

Intrigue your guests with sandwich loaf

Relaxed is the hostess and intrigued are the guests when a frosted sandwich loaf is featured for a special luncheon. Conversation is stimulated along with appetites when the chilled loaf is sliced to reveal the layers of goodness beneath the smooth cream cheese icing.

Braunschweiger, "cold cuts" (ready-to-serve sausages) and ground ham provide the three layers of meaty goodness, explains Reba Staggs, home economist of the National Live Stock and Meat Board. Although elegant, the loaf is easy for the hostess as it's made the day before and chilled.

SUPERB SANDWICH LOAF

1 loaf (1½ pounds) white sandwich bread, unsliced
½ cup softened butter or margarine

BRAUNSCHWEIGER FILLING

8 ounces Braunschweiger
½ cup chopped ripe olives
¼ cup mayonnaise

SAUSAGE-CHEESE FILLING

¼ cup grated American cheese
¼ cup drained sweet pickle relish
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
8 to 10 ounces assorted "cold cuts"

HAM FILLING

8 ounces baked or "boiled" ham, ground or chopped
¼ cup finely chopped celery
½ cup chopped pecans
1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
½ cup mayonnaise

FROSTING

3 packages (8 ounces each) cream cheese
¼ cup milk
¼ teaspoon salt
Assorted garnishes

Trim crusts off loaf of bread. Cut lengthwise into 4 slices. Spread butter or margarine on one side of top and bottom slices and both sides of others. Blend ingredients for Braunschweiger filling and spread on buttered side of bottom slice of bread. Combine grated cheese and pickle relish. Spread on second slice and top with "cold cuts." Blend ingredients for ham filling and spread on third slice. Arrange slices in order. Add fourth slice, buttered side down. Wrap in waxed paper and refrigerate for several hours or overnight. Soften cheese with milk; add salt and mix well. Place loaf on serving plate and frost with cream cheese spread, reserving ¾ cup. Decorate loaf with cream cheese forced through a pastry tube. Marygrove offering scholarships

Two scholarship programs based on academic excellence rather than financial need are offered at Marygrove College, according to Thomas K. Plofchan, admissions director.

They are the Marygrove Scholar of the Year Awards and the Room Fee Waiver Awards.

Application deadline for the Scholar Awards has been extended to Monday, March 15.

This program includes full tuition, room, board and books for six students each year. Each award is valued at approximately $2,700.

Selection is based on a competitive examination, four academic recommendations, and a 3.7 (A-) average, based upon academic subjects only.

The awards will be distributed to: two incoming freshmen, one from a public and one from a private high school; one to an incoming transfer student; and one each to a Marygrove freshman sophomore, and junior.

Announcement of winners will be made May 1. The Room Fee Waiver Award is granted students whose high school or college academic average is 3.7 (A-) or above, who choose to reside on campus.

This award is renewable and continues as long as the student maintains the 3.7 average.

For further information write or call Admissions Office, Marygrove College, Detroit, Michigan, 48221, UN. 2-8000, ext. 81.

How many volts of static electricity do you figure your body can build up as you shuffle across a nylon carpet? Hard to believe, this. As many as 15,000 volts, the science boys say. Know one fellow who's so shy of static electricity he always carried a key in his fingers. At least at home. Touches metal with it everywhere he goes to ground himself out. Makes sparks. I've seen that, but with the clutched key, he says, he never feels the tingle.

In California, about 91 per cent of the citizens live in the cities. In Vermont, about 32 per cent of the citizens live in the cities. Remember that, young fellow. If you're looking for the wide open spaces, go east...The West German government has legally designated the housewife as a skilled professional worker. That's not all. A new law there is about to qualify her for a retirement pension based on her years of service.

Open question — What's the difference in taste, if any, between a shark steak and a swordfish steak?

Write the numbers 1, 2, 3 and 4 on a pad of paper. Ask somebody to circle any one of these. Will bet you a quarter on the corner what's marked is 3. Try it. Repeated tests show that's the chosen number in this simple circumstance approximately 80 per cent of the time.

CARROLL RIGHTER'S

General tendencies: Until midafternoon very adverse aspects are in effect. You would be wise to carry through with whatever promises you have made without making any changes or taking any chances, but you find later you are able to calmly and rationally think out a course of action that can bring many beneficial results.

Aries (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Forgetting work during day just to go off on a tangent would be very bad, so stick to duties and gain the cooperation of fellow workers. Early in the day progress seems slow, but picks up considerably later. Relax tonight.

Taurus (Apr. 20 to May 20) Establish more harmony at home and please kin more during day, and then you can go out together socially in p.m. Your creative thoughts are working nicely then. It's rather slow but sure progress today.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21) Be careful in driving or motion of all sorts during day and avoid criticizing an ally. Show wisdom. The evening can be very happy with those you love.

Moon Children (June 22 to July 21) Monetary matters require careful handling during a.m., but then you can shop or do errands with vim and vigor. Don't rely on advice given early in day by a businessman. Handle correspondence, records in p.m.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21) Forget that desire to do something drastic in a.m. and then you find a much better way of making more money in the direct lines that are right up your alley. Work on own ideas during p.m. That expert you rely upon may not really be an expert. Avoid.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Plan the future more wisely so that you do not take any risky chances. The evening is excellent where social activities are concerned. P.m. is a good time to state your aims to right people who can help you gain them.

Libra (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you are not forceful with others, this can be a happy and successful day and evening for you. Some pal can be most disappointing during day. Evening however brings benefits from another source.

Tomorrow's forecast from the Carroll Righter Institute

Scorpio (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Irking those in high position could do you irreparable harm during day, but in p.m. bigwigs are most appreciative, helpful. Get your bills paid early. Evening is especially fine from the social standpoint.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Think over those things that do not help you at all and rid yourself of them, and then handle that civic affair wisely in p.m. Get the data you need from right sources. Listen to what an important person has to suggest in p.m.

Capricorn (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) If you are careless in handling obligations during day, you can get into deep trouble, so be conscientious. Tonight go out to new places of interest. Show kindness to mate instead of berating him or her. Have more happiness in the future.

Aquarius (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You and a vital associate do not see eye to eye right now, but don't fret and all works out fine tomorrow. Plan a happy evening with loved one. Being more objective in dealing with others is wise at this time.

Pisces (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Instead of arguing with a co-worker, try to cooperate more and get right results. Take care of your health during day. New opportunities open up for you with associates in the evening, if you are alert to them.

If your child is born today he or she will be one of those delightful young people who when young feels others are imposing on him or her, which belief could lead to all form of imaginary ailments that could deter the otherwise fine promise here. This can be avoided if you teach this child to do chores and develop a good sense of responsibility. Regardless upon reaching maturity your progeny finally wakes up to the foolishness of being so self-centered and accomplishes much to compensate for lost time.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Customer service Q. "Who dreamed up the ridiculous way the French poodle is clipped?" A. That goes back a way. Several centuries, French hunters used those poodles as retrievers. The clip protected them in the brush, but still let them swim easily...Q. "What makes bock beer darker?" A. The malt's roasted longer, that's all...Q. "Wasn't that Texas town of Post named after Wiley Post, the flier who died with Will Rogers?" A. It was named after C.W. Post, the Post Toasties tycoon. As a matter of coincidence, however, Wiley Post's widow lives right close by there.

Contrary to your report that nobody can recite the alphabet backwards in two minutes," writes M.R. Sankey, "I can do that in five seconds. I also can: 1. Touch the top of my nose with my tongue. 2. Roll my tongue completely over, either way. 3. Wiggle my ears, or either one independently of the other. All right? So what can you do?" Nothing, nothing.

And it has come to pass, finally, that more motion pictures are made in South Africa now than in Hollywood, far more...If 13 is such an unlucky number, how come there has been no major air crash on the 13th day of any month in the past 30 some-odd years? Note also, please, the boys under age 14 outnumber the girls under the age of 14 by 51 to 49.

Rapid Reply — Yes, sir that unit to measure sound known as the decibel was named after Alexander Graham Bell.

NEW PROJECT DIAGRAMMED — Timothy J. Dyer, chairman of the PCHA's Community Relations Committee, explains some of the features incorporated into the lobby displays which the Authority hopes will occupy space in the four PCHA Hospitals by National Hospital Week, May 6 to 15.

Display will tell story of Hospital Authority

Visitors to hospitals governed by the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) who have wondered what the Authority is all about, will be able to get the story soon.

Audio-visual displays for the lobbies of the four PCHA hospitals, including Ann Arbor Hospital in Wayne, are under construction following two years of committee work to finalize the form the devices would take.

Chairman of the PCHA's Community Relations Committee, Timothy J. Dyer, said that board members felt that many people didn't understand the workings of the organization and the arrangements which provided the hospitals with service.

"Thousands of people sit in the lobbies every year," Dyer said, "with not much to do, and worrying about their loved ones. We designed the displays to divert their attention and to tell the PCHA story a little better."

Dyer says that according to state hospital authorities, the Peoples Community Hospital Authority is one of the soundest hospital systems financially in the country.

The committee chairman explained the basics of the authority by comparing present operation of the Ypsilanti facility, Beyer Memorial Hospital, with its old system:

"In 1945, Ypsilanti spent $100,000 from its general fund to keep the old Beyer Hospital running. They now pay only $37,000 a year for the new hospital because of the PCHA, which has a 22-community membership."

The displays will feature a telephone-type device which will dispense a three-minute explanatory narration which will be accompanied by a slide program.

In addition, illuminated mapwork will pinpoint hospital locations.

"We have a film story on the PCHA which we use only occasionally now," said Ray Clift, the authority's public relations chief. "The criticism of this film has been that it can apply to any hospital."

Clift said that the new displays will be much more specific, explaining facets of hospital work which distinguish PCHA hospitals.

The exhibits, now being constructed by the Display and Exhibit Company in Wayne, are also designed to be portable, so that lectures at schools and area clubs will be augmented by the new machinery.

Total cost of the displays is slightly over $8,000.

Congressman's poll going to area homes

Every home in the 15th Congressional District will be receiving a questionnaire this week from Congressman William D. Ford, who is conducting his annual public opinion poll.

Congressman Ford has polled his constituents each year since his election to the House of Representatives in 1964.

"I consider this annual survey one of the most important projects I undertake each year," Congressman Ford said. "It is the most effective means I have of learning how 15th District residents feel about the major issues facing the Congress and our nation."

"In past years, I have received as high as 15,000 responses, and I sincerely hope that the return this year will equal or exceed that figure. The greater the number of replies, the more accurate the poll will be."

The questions on this year's questionnaire cover a wide range of topics, ranging from the economy to foreign policy, domestic problems, national priorities, selective service and electoral reform.

Included are questions on wage and price controls, the war in Indo-China, American commitments in Europe and the Middle East, National Health Insurance, (supersonic transport), a volunteer Army, lowered voting age and tax deductions for political contributions.

"These questions cover the issues and problems that we in

Permit is issued for bank branch

The new bank branch is to be constructed on the north side of Eureka Rd. near Warrman Rd. The structure has a reported construction cost of $101,000 and will be a one-story brick and block bank facility.

congress will be considering in the coming months," Congressman Ford said. "The responses will be tabulated by volunteer workers in my District office, and the results will be published in the "Congressional Record" and thus made available to the President and other members of Congress.

"There is no better way than answering such a questionnaire for a person to make his views known to the nation's leaders who will be making the final decision on these important matters."

Congressman Ford said that the questionnaires were being mailed to each of the nearly 140,000 homes in the 15th District, but urges anyone not receiving one within the next week to write him at 125 Cannon House Office Building, Washington, D. D. 20515

Fire-fighting talk set for hospitals

Lt. Robert McGrath, recognized as one of the nation's most qualified instructors in the use of fire-fighting techniques, and the training of hospital personnel on how to react in emergency fire situations, is going to make his second visit to hospital units operated by the Peoples Community Hospital Authority.

Day-long Fire Institutes will be conducted at each of the four PCHA hospitals, starting at Beyer Memorial in Ypsilanti on May 20, Annapolis in Wayne on May 21, Outer Drive in Lincoln Park on May 24 and Seaway in Trenton on May 25.

Lt. McGrath's initial visit to PCHA was in May, 1968, and the key hospital personnel who participated in his instructional program were unanimous in their praise of the training he provided in his dramatic demonstrations.

Formerly associated with the Chicago Fire Department for 27 years, McGrath has conducted fire institutes in more than 100 cities across the country since becoming a free-lance fire fighting expert.

His instructions feature training on the evacuation of patients, including how to carry patients who far outweigh nurses who will carry them; instruction by demonstration in the various ways to quickly extinguish or control fires.

Several commissioners call jail 'indefensible'

By JOE CHAREST

Calling the situation at the Wayne County Jail "indefensible," several members of the Board of Commissioners refused support of a $1,000 appropriation to be used in their defense against a suit started by several inmates of the detention facility.

The Prosecuting Attorney's office had requested the money in order to bring in an expert witness to explain some of the problems involved in running a jail not only here in Wayne County but, presumably, anywhere in the country.

But Commissioner Rose Mary C. Robinson (D-17th District) led a parade of adverse comments, saying "I'm opposed to any expenditure at all to be used in our defense, because I don't think we can defend that jail."

Commissioner Paul Silver (D-11th District), advised, "I think we should walk in, plead guilty, and throw ourselves on the mercy of the court."

Silver said that he would urge that the commission acknowledge the problems at the jail and ask the court for the time to correct them.

He also said that he thought it was "time to place the responsibility on the people of Wayne County" by adopting a millage proposal to construct a new detention facility.

Silver claimed that in this way, the people would have direct responsibility for lack of a jail if the proposal failed in the hands of the voters.

Activity period slated for South students

South Junior High School students have embarked on an experimental activity group based on interests expressed by the pupils.

Mrs. Karen Kimmell has served as coordinator in establishing the program following many weeks of discussion and work which started March 8.

Teachers were looking for outlets for student interest and a teacher committee started working out guidelines for the suggested program.

Surveys were made of student interests and from these a listing was made and presented to the staff. Members selected areas that they felt they could help the students pursue their interests or activities. From this work, has come the listings and sign up sheets for the activity.

Students were given an opportunity to select an activity from those that are available. In some instances, lack of space made it necessary to move to second choices.

Time for the program will be during the regularly assigned homeroom for the students. This will make approximately a half-hour available for the activity.

Some of the activities are ecology study, newspaper work, intra-mural sports, camera club, model rocketry, chess club, arts and crafts, study lounge, knitting, guitar, Spanish, French and German.

A THOUGHT TO REMEMBER

BY HAROLD REDISKE, DIRECTOR

Why? Why. why Why did this have to happen to me? When misfortune, disaster or tragedy occurs, it is difficult to try to answer the question. Even if there is a known answer, and most of the time there is none, the answer is still unacceptable. If one is presumptuous enough to try to answer; if one resorts to the retort that courage is needed, one knows how futile it can be. Yet, when bewilderment and grief exist, a mortal human being can help. In one such instance, an unforgettable scene will always be remembered.

A close friend of a grief stricken family stopped in, unaware that tragedy had struck. Shocked at the bomb shell news, he stumbled around for words. Then in impromptu and certainly in unheeded manner, he replied, "I can't tell you why. No one can. I'm not an overly religious man as you know, but I think it will help all of us if we pray." The family agreed.

It was a beautiful prayer. And it helped. It always can. . .

Michigan lawyers who participate in the State Bar Lawyer Referral Service have agreed to afford referred clients an initial conference of one half-hour for a fee of $10, which is less than the customary rate for office consultation.

If discussion in the initial conference indicates a legal problem requiring further legal services, it is up to the client to decide whether he wishes to proceed. Neither client nor lawyer is obligated to go beyond the initial conference and $10 fee.

Arrangements for further legal services which may be required will be those agreed upon between the client and lawyer.

Bids to be opened for I-75 interchange

Sponsored by the State Bar of Michigan, the service makes it possible for a person in any part of the state to obtain legal advice from a lawyer in his own or a nearby community, for a modest consultation fee.

The process starts with a telephone call to the State Bar Lawyer Referral Service. A caller in any part of Michigan can reach the Service toll-free by dialing his local Direct-Dial Access Code followed by 800-292-7950.

Calls to the Lawyer Referral Service may be placed Monday through Friday between 9:00 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

After a brief determination of the nature of the problem and the caller's location, the Lawyer Referral Service staff will furnish the name, address and telephone number of a participating lawyer near

State Sen William Faust (D-13th District) announced Monday that the second largest bid-taking in the history of the Department of State Highways will be held March 17 in Lansing.

Thirty-three projects in 16 counties totaling an estimated $37.3 million make it the largest bid taking since December, 1960, when bids totaling a record $42 million were taken.

The largest single project, estimated to cost $8 million, is construction of a mammoth 250-acre interchange to join planned Interstate 275 with Interstate 96 and M-14 (Ford Road).

Bids on four additional projects totaling an estimated $6.7 million also will be taken for ramp and bridge work in the interchange area.

Financing for this project is provided by the Federal Highway Revenue Act of 1956 under which the Federal Government pays 90 per cent and Michigan the remaining 10 per cent.

Co-op program set for Romulus

There is something new in the air for Romulus High School seniors. A retailing co-op program is being set up for the fall of 1971.

Students in their senior year will be able to leave school at 1 p.m. and go to a part time retailing job in the local area. They will also receive guidance in a related distributive education class that will teach principles of selling, retailing, advertising and marketing.

Thirty students are now signed up for the program. Michael J. Birmingham, coordinator for the program, is now arranging employment for these students for the summer and fall.

Anyone in the retailing field interested in hiring one of these co-op students is asked to contact Birmingham at the High School at 941-2170.

Fifth graders visit art museum

The fifth graders from Elwell Elementary School enjoyed a day at the Detroit Institute of Arts recently.

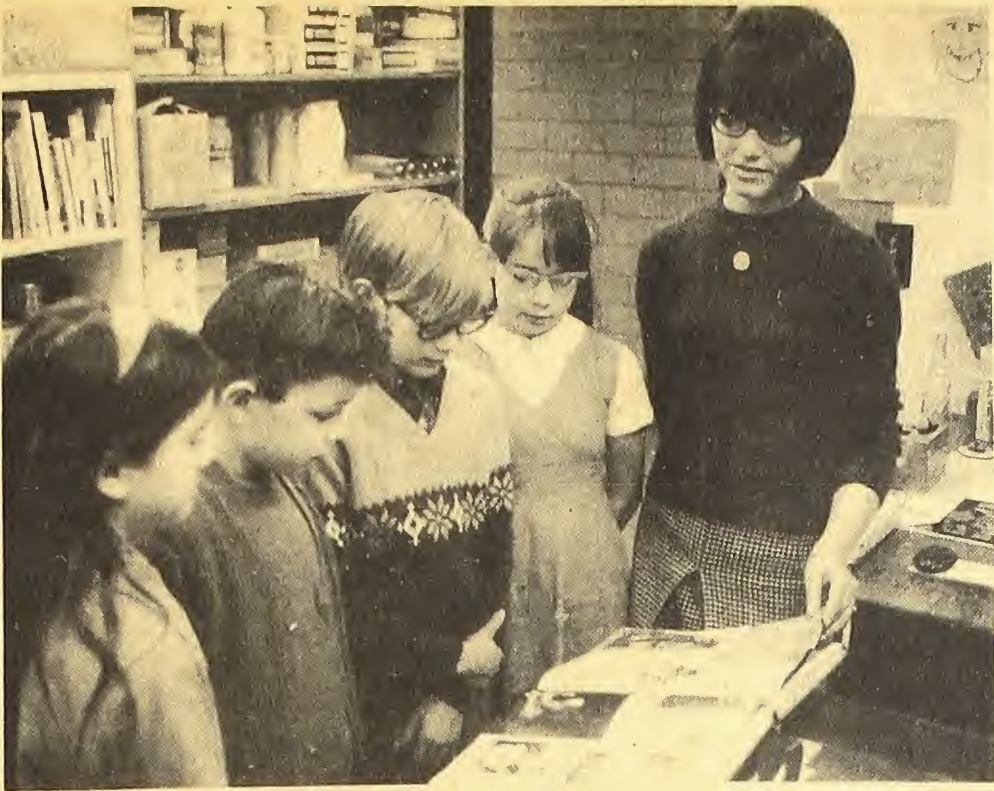

They were accompanied by their teachers Mrs. Marianne Cipkowski, Mrs. Diana Kuszaj, Sue Seyfried and Mrs. Donnie Durant, as well as eleven mothers. This is the third year that the tour has been presented.

Slides of various objects of art that the children would see were shown during the art period preceeding the trip.

American Art was the theme and consisted of paintings as well as two actual houses recreated from the 18th century.

In addition to the regular tour, the children explored the Art Institute in small groups. They discovered such things as African masks, suits of armor, tapestries and sculptures.

The field trip was followed up with children making drawings of their favorite piece of art.

Junk cars to disappear

A program to rid the City of Romulus of inoperable and junk cars is underway.

City Council President Jimmie Raspberry reported at last week's council session that there are many such cars in the city and wondered if the city's ordinance regarding inoperable cars was being enforced.

program to rid the city of junk cars and the like.

The mayor stated that the first step underway is the issuance of 30-day notice to residents that are involved requesting them to take individual action first before the city acts.

Poet James Whitcomb Riley traveled with a medicine show company as a musician and story teller.

Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael disclosed that the city's administration is starting a

WE THOUGHT THIS WAS ESPECIALLY NICE AND WE WANT TO HAVE ALL GRANDMOTHERS ENJOY IT TOO.

LETTER WRITTEN BY A 3rd GRADER FOR A CLASS ASSIGNMENT:

"WHAT IS A GRANDMOTHER?"

"A grandmother is a lady who has no children of her own, she likes other peoples little girls. A grandfather is a man grandmother. He goes for walks with the boys, and they talk about fishing and tractors, and like that. Grandmas don't have to do anything but be there. They're old, so they shouldn't play hard or run. It is enough if they drive us to the market where the pretend horse is, and have lots of dimes ready. Or if they take us for walks, they should slow down past things like pretty leaves or caterpillars. They should never say 'Hurry Up'. Usually they are fat, but not too fat to tie your shoes. They wear glasses and funny underwear. They can take their teeth and gums off. It is better if they don't type write, or play cards, except with us. They don't have to be smart, only answer questions like 'Why dogs hate cats', and 'How come God isn't married?' They don't talk baby talk like visitors do, because it is hard to understand. Then, they read to us, they don't skip, or mind if it is the same story again. Everybody should try to have one, especially if you don't have television, because grandmas are the only grownups who have got time."

Service advice

My husband is in the Army. Do I still have medical benefits while he is overseas?

Yes. Those eligible for medical benefits are:

1. Dependents of members on active duty or dependents of retired members and retired reservists entitled to retired or retainer pay.
2. Dependents of deceased members of the Armed Forces who died while serving on active duty or were in retirement drawing retainer pay.

While my husband is overseas, will my treatments be free or do I have to go to a military base for treatment?

If you go to a military hospital, there is no charge for outpatient care. If you are hospitalized, the charge is $1.75 a day. If you go to a civilian facility, the outpatient care is chargeable to the dependent. The dependent pays the first $50 for outpatient care, including prescription drugs each fiscal year, plus 20 per cent of the charges in excess of $50. However, a family of two or more pays a maximum of $100 deductible each fiscal year, plus 20 per cent of the charges in excess of $100.

When applying for medical services from civilian physicians or facilities, patients should first make sure that they will be accepted under the Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services. (CHAMPUS)

The patient pays his share of the charges directly to the source of care: physician, hospital, or for prescription drugs, the pharmacy. The source of care in turn collects the remainder from the government. (Patients will be reimbursed for overpayments.)

Receipted bills should be obtained for all payments, including prescription drugs, and should show the name of patient and the date.

For more information, contact one of the following:

1. The surgeon's office or the medical officer of the nearest military installation.
2. A Family doctor or local hospital.
3. The executive director, office for Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services, (CHAMPUS); Office of the Surgeon General, U.S. ARMY, Denver, Colo. 80240
4. Michigan Medical Service, 441 East Jefferson St.; Detroit, Mich. (CHAMPUS Program) phone 965-3500
